

Trade Shows

Coex Vietnam is an international trade exhibition organization, which is a part of Coex Company, based in Gangnam, Korea. With the mission from Coex and WTC (World Trade Center), we organize trade shows as place for distribution businesses and buying businesses gather together. We have a diversity in the field of exhibitions, including retails, services, F&B, technology, franchising, machinery and equipment, electricity and energy...

To ensure the quality of the exhibition, we always strive to connect with organizations and associations related in the industry to create a perfect place for parties. Besides, we also promote this exhibition to everyone, be able to connect quality businesses as well as finding potential visitors from companies, businesses and organizations.

With the minimum scale of about 200 booths for each exhibition, we always want to create the best conditions for businesses to showcase their products, as well as visitors can easily find the right product/service for their business needs.
